[Reuter's.] Saluting with Shrapnel.

AT ST. PETERSBURG.

LONDON, 20th January. It is officially announced that, during the firing of the usual salute after the ceremony of blessing the Neva, a gun of the battery near the Bourse fired shrapnel, instead of blank cartridge; four windows of the Winter Palace were broken; the Tsar was some distance from the palace. Other accounts say that the shrapnel shell was inadvertently left in a gun of the Horse Artillery, the-most aristocratic corps in Russia, after practise on Tuesday. The ceremony was carried out according to the programme. The occurrence has occasioned wild remours that the affair was the outcome of a military plot. The men of the saluting battery have been arrested.

The Integrity of China. NO LAND GRABBING.

Mr. Hay has sent a circular to the Powers I for Gitls. on the subject of the integrity of China after the war and has received satisfactory assurances. Russia, replying to Mr. Hay's note, resterates the complaints of China's violation of neutrality.

The circular of Mr. Hay, whose direct purpose is to prevent land-grabbling at the end of the war, preserve the open door and the old territorial status quo of China proper, has been formally and warmly accepted by Great Britain, Germany, and France; it does not apply to Manchuria for which Russia and Japan are now fighting. It is thought in diplomatic circles that the acceptance of the circular arrests any scheme on foot for the readjustment of China's boundaries, and removes a potential cause for future friction.

BELILIUS PUBLIC SCHOOL ANNUAL PRIZE-GIVING

THE GOVERNOR ON FEMALE EDUCATION

.The fourteenth annual presentation of prizes in connection with the above school took place at noon, to-day, H.E. the Governor (Sir Matthew Nathan, R.E., K.C.M G.), kindly distributing the prizes to the successful scholars. He was accompanied by Mr. R. A. B. Ponsonby, his Private Secretary, and Mr. E. A. Irving, Inspector of Schools, there being a very large attendance of parents, old scholars and friends of the pupils. The proceedings were prefaced by a short programme, in which the girls took part, of drilling and club swinging, recitations, dumb-bell drill by the junior girls (which was really very good), and singing. All the items were cleverly presented, and reflect the highest credit on Mrs. Bateman, the Head Mistress, and her able staff of assistants. The programme being concluded,

THE REPORT.

The Inspector of Schools read the following report addressed to the Hon. Mr. F. H. May:-Sir.—I have the honour to forward you the 14th annual report of the Belilios Public School

Attendances.—These show a decided improvement on the last few years, partly due, no doubt, to the absence of the plague epidemic which has so seriously affected out numbers in former years. The average caily attendance (excluding the Chinese girls learning Chinese only) for this year is 113.635 as compared with 1903 93-5; 1902 89 5. In the purely Chinese division the number on the roll totals 290. The attendance has, on the whole, been very regular, some pupils living as far away as Kowloon and Wanchai having made the full number, 266, while several have only been absent one or two days throughout the year.

Changes in the school,---At the beginning of the year a new arrangement of the Infant Department was made. Up till that time, all beginners, no matter what their age or nationality, were admitted to the Infant Department. By the new arrangement all the English-speaking infants were formed into a class with Miss Winnie Bateman as their teacher. All the non-English speaking pupils in the Department were placed under the care of Miss Bateman with Miss definite ideas, and such ideas as I have are, Vanstone to assist her. The Indian boys were drafted off to form the nucleus of a school for Indians, and Mrs. Hatwell was appointed to take charge of them. They occupy, at present, one of the class rooms on the top floor.

The number of Chinese girls learning English has increased under the present arrangement from 32 to 69. The number entered in the year being 68. (During the year some have left for various reasons, the number now in attendance being 60).

Winnie Bateman has also increased. When the class was formed it numbered 16, and the number on the roll in December was 32. It is certainly easier as well as pleasanter to teach pupils all speaking the same language, whether that language be Chinese or English.

The two highest classes in the Chinese reasoning power, or colloquially, sound comdivision come up for lessons in English with | mon sense. The second is the semale element Miss Bateman's pupils, for 2 hours every morn- which is by different people termed intuition, ing. For this no fees are charged as it is imagination, and sometimes genius. In the ly searing to precipitate a conslict, but the more or less compulsory. The girls are shy man the first of these elements predominates, and awkward when they first come, but they and in the woman the second. But without soon overcome this and, to judge by their faces, seem to enjoy their English lessons.

The first class, representing Standard VII, are young for such advanced work, their ages averaging 14 years only. But by diligence and | genius, and it is thus only through her influence co-operation with my efforts they have overcome many difficulties and it has been a great great works. Roughly speaking, man makes pleasure to work with them. They have all | life possible: woman makes it beautiful, or as worked very well and those who have obtained prizes have done so by gaining only a few ! marks, more than their less successful class-

Staff.—The staff has changed a little during of the trees, we want the wood and the shade, the year. Mrs. Tutcher has been away on leave since March. We expect her back next March. I shall be very much pleased to have | fragrance, the colour, and the form,—that her with us again. Miss Vanstone sent in her is sweetness, sympathy and gentleness of resignation in April, having learned typewriting | manners that we look for. While thereand preferring it to teaching. She left shortly fore the education of boys must be largely before her month was finished or another utilitarian, the training of girls should be teacher appointed in her place. Fortunately | directed towards making them intelligent and we were able to secure the services of Miss Lily Heang, who has proved a kind and capable | their own and other languages, and the underteacher. Mrs. Hatwell resigned her position as teacher of the Indian boys in November owing to the corps to which her husband belonged | the proper subjects for them to be taught, with being sent home. Mrs. Whitehead was only so much arithmetic as will help them in appointed as her successor and is now in otheir marketing and household accounts, and charge of the class. School Grant.—An increase was made in the school grant and we were able to send and may help them in that great and comhome an order for several school appliances paratively new branch of woman's work,—the the books, vouchers and securities of the comthat were badly needed. Our school-rooms nursing of the sick. I see no need for the pany and have found the same to be correct. with the new pictures and maps on the instruction, which I found being given in walls, look much brighter, and the lessons with one of the Girls' Schools of the Colony, the pictures to illustrate them are much more in Stocks and Shares. Such instruction attractive in the eyes of the juniors. There is | can lead them to no ideals and hardly still a want unsupplied and that is suitable readers for those learning to speak English. The ordinary readers are either altogether too age to be gained from the study of algebra, childish in their ideas or else too advanced in language. It is surprising the long and difficult words that are used in English Children's story books.

Examination.—Our school was examined be gained in a girls' school may prove a danbefore the Xmas holidays and the Inspector took away the exercise books of the Chinese I have said has been addressed to you. It was Woosung at 8 a.m. 15th inst. learning English to judge of the pupils' progress possibly, as it was intended to be, above the by them. Some of the classes had a short heads of the boys and girls here. Children: I oral examination and some did papers set by Mr. Irving. We have not had the Report yet, and so cannot quite tell whether to feel jubilant

THE GOVERNOR'S SPEECH. H.E. the Governor said :- Ladies and Gentlemen: It was only after some hesitation that I acceded to the suggestion of the Inspector of Schools that I should include this school among those at which I was to present prizes this year, as the subject of girl's education is not one with regard to which I have very lear, somewhat heterodox. The functions of men and women in life are very different, and must I believe always remain so. The most ardent supporter of women's rights will hardly claim that they can become soldiers, or policemen; blacksmiths or carpenters. As no one can well direct work he is physically incapable of himself performing, it follows that women are by nature precluded from those professions ultimately based on physical force or hard labour, such as the administration of govern-The:number of English infants under Miss ment, the practice of navigation, war, law, engineering, etc. Then I believe that with the physical difference between men and women goes a mental difference. There are two elements in the mind of every man and every woman. The first is the male element, which is called variously judgment, some imagination, a man, though he may be effectual, cannot be great. In the woman there often lacks that closeness of reasoning power, necessary to give practical effect to their on others that she can become the creator of a poet has prettily put it: "Men are God's trees: Women God's flowers." Culture is necessary for the proper development of both, but has to be differently directed. In the use -that is the strength and the protective! power. In the use of the flowers it is the appreciative. The power of conversing in standing of art, music and literature, with its attendant studies of history and geography, are

A native boarding-house runner was charged before Mr. Gompertz this morning, with impeding the navigation of the s.s. It is not so long ago that this crowding round moving steamers caused the death of one of the crew, as recorded in these columns at the time. In this case His Worship severely reprimanded the defendant and fined him $25.

THE SIEGE OF PORT ARTHUR.

THE STORY OF NAMAKOYAMA.

Writing from the Headquarters of the Third Mr. Richard Barry sends a graphic description to the San Francisco Chronicle of the attack upon one of the forts. He says :-

Who will remember Namakoyama when all the bloody story of Port Arthur is told? Yet it was a big fight in its day-and interesting. Ten the trench continued to the sea, which lapped, key to Port Arthur. Now, Antzu Hill, the Adjutant who spoke French and who had Table Fort, is dominated by Itze Hill, 203 in dominated by Antze Hill and Namakoyama i dominated by 203. So they all had to be taken | Diego Bay, where Point Loma cuts a crescent in detail before Itze Hill, which is now the key from the blue. only to the defences of the west harbour, would fall. On the afternoon of September 18th one fire at first that the Russians knew it not for of General Nogi's staff officers told us that the next day was down for a general attack, in which a demonstration on the left was to cover their intention of capturing the outlying fatal half-hour for them, for it permitted our positions of the Chair Fort, on the extreme right.

't dawn of the 19th we started. We had to skirt two-thirds of the army to get to the First "Division," which formed "the tright wing." In middle of the forencon we halted at a sutler's | dragging the ground, one file of twenty, then shop in a transport camp in the rear of the division, three-fourths of our journey done. The day was clear, hot and windy. Scattered artillery shots flung echoes among the hills in front, but nobody paid any attention to them For two months we had heard nothing else, As we were about to start for our last jog onward, a young soldier we took to be a trooper riding past saw us, leaped from his mount and hastened up. In good-English he said he was glad to see us, and almost embraced the American, me. A handsome, large fellow. un-Japanese in physique, with blue (sic) eyes and a luscious mouth that spoke of emotional joys, he looked the football player I later found him to be-a graduate of Yale, sociological student, lover of America. We exchanged cards. On his, one line engraved in Roman characters on four-ply Bristol, such a card as have been nowhere else in the army I read, Mr. Kutomi stronger of the second he lest his place as agent for a Japanese tea company in New York when the war broke out, but he wants to get back as soon as it is over. Here he belonged to the artillery, "the heavy artillery," he said, with a lift in his head and a ring in his voice. I said he "wants" to return to America; I should have said "wanted."

Nabuto took us to his battery, a six-gun emplacement of field four-point-sevens. There was a good deal of pride in the way he exhibited the bomb-proof shell chest, took out s cartridge, threw open the cordite chamber, pulled out the breech block of the gun, rammed the cartridge in, snapped the block and stepped back to give the lanyard man the signal to fir -more pride than I had before seen in Japanese gunner, usually a timid, simple thing, [152] who handles his delicate instrument with a little vanity as he would handle a potato boe, yet with dexterity. The telephone rang, the Lieutenant in command called to him and he hastened across the redoubt, for it seemed he was that day serving as an orderly. Presently he hastened back to us and said we had better hurry on up front if we wished to escape danger and see the battle, for the brigade headquarters

He were in a narrow valley with only a small range of foothills between us and the sea-ths place that Villiers later christened in a sketch "The Valley of the Shadow of Death." Every corner that we turned we came upon a battery nestled away behind its natural redoubt, with bomb-proofs for the men and bomb-proofs for the ammunition. It was hardly a valley, but a ravine, barren of grass, a torrential place through which in spring huge rains tore. Soon other rain-red rain. powdery and leaden-was to pour there.

had just ordered the firing to commence,

We counted seven batteries about in dungar, behind mound and at the base of mountains over which they must elevate for range. Only the rear battery was firing. The rest were all silent. We thought we must be a mile from theaction, but as we began climbing the mountain to the left of the front battery five learned we were but a thousand yards from Nama, koyama, where lay the enemy's outposts. At that short distance, easy rifle range, we came upon a regiment of reserves, with arms stacked and overcoats on, willing for nightfall to reinforce the attack. Exposed to the wind, they lay tight to the ground and showed hardly decent curiosity as we, the only friendly foreigners within hundreds of miles, came up. There own shelter tents were pitched, two yards kbaki to each man, and besides the fourting nt poles, the size of a bandmaster's baton, ch carried his implement of defence along. de his weapon of offence—pick and rifle., They ere camped eight deep, and the grey-haired by road, we were yet but a little more than four hundred, as the crow flies, from the enemy's trenches. All about and behind us lay the artillery and reserves, while sheer down the mountain, three hundred yards at our feet, lay the advance waiting for the word. Unlike the reserves, they had no picks, no shelter tents, no knapsacks, no overcoats. Rach man , was stripped to his khaki uniform, his cap, his cartridge belt and his rifle. The four leather boxes on his bolt held two hundred rounds of ammunition and in his hip pocket he carried an iron ration, three hard biscuits with a piece of salt fish the size of his palm. On this those who survived lived for nearly forty-eight hours.

Then we saw why our objective is called, Namakoyamo. On the map it is down under the figure 176, which denotes its height in metres, but the soldier, who must have fancy names for all things, quickly saw it had some resemblance to a flying-fish called the namako, abundant in these waters. Westerners call it the trepang, which the mongers of Kamakura, after disemboweling, inflate for hanging-lamps. There it lay before us-the namako, its slopes spread finwise, its two peaks Army before Port Arthur, on September 22nd, [furzecapped, rising about the mists of the valley. Ringed with burbed wire was each peak, and close about the top, hugging the earth, were lines of loopholed rock. From the nearer peak the glint of the sun caught the brass muzzles of two cannon. From the farther, down the slope, ran years ago itse Hill, the Chair Fort, was the | a gentle azure, round a promontory. An travelled a lot said it looked like the Vale of Cashmere. That was the ndvance to get to the foot of Namakoyama before their outlook could detect the movement from the trenches above. They advanced cautiously, a squad of twenty men at a time, slinking along the ravines, their rifle butts another and another, until the slopes were dotted with figures coloured like the earthsilent, nimble, tiny. All, this time the artillery was at it hot. Beginning with the battery which we had seen go into action, the pieces picked it up, one by one, until nearly too guns were spitting fire from the nooks about us, in one of which we lay. We might have been a nest of demons, with the old devil hen hatching us out. She kept those two ridges so hot with shrapnel that not a man dared show himself. For twenty yards below the top the slope bubbled as does a pot when it boils above the kettle's brim. Not a sound from the nearer Russians. From Antgu Hill and Fige Hill, from 203 and even from far off Laoti Hill the replies spoke savage and vain, but "amakoyama was silent, silent as though no brass cannon were mounted in the sight of all men, as though no sharpshooters were lying low with Maxims and repeating rifles waiting for the final charge.

APPETITE RESTORED: INDIGESTION CURED BY DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS.

Lost appetite means bad digestion. The proof that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure indigestion in the rational way is that they improve the appetite from the first.

Mrs. McNulty, 5 Kay-street, Wigan, England, said; "I often fainted from sheer weakness. In addition to Indigestion, I was victim to Anemia, and had acute spasms round the heart. Each morning I felt as though I had not the energy to rise. My work became a burden. I could not eat properly. Although I went to the most skilful doctor I knew of, it was not ordinary medicine I wanti d. I needed new blood. I heard of remarkable cures by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. When I had tried them felt at once a change for the better. The dizzy feelings and fainting fits disappeared, and gradually I got back strength and perfect ordinary medicine dors not make new blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have, in the same way, cured Angemia (which is simply bloodlessness), Consumption and Decline, as well as Rheumatism, Paralysis, Gout, Sciatica, and the ailments which women endure in silence. The genuine pills bear Dr. Williams' name, and substitutes should be avoided, as they never cured anyone. I'r. Williams' Medicine Co., Holborn-viaduct, London, will send a bottle post free for 2s. 9d., or six for 13s. 9d., but they can be had at medicine shops, if purchasers insist on having the genuing. . ufferers are invited to write to Dr. Williams' correspondence department, 46 Holborn-viaduct, London, with description of symptoms.

CRIME IN HONGKONG.

In a brief animadversion upon crime in the Colony a Shanghai contemporary asserts that for the past few weeks Hongkong has developed a record which would put to shame a far west American mining centre, and which has even outpaced Manila. I alludes to the weekly budget of murder cases, suicides, criminal assaults and robcontinues, Hongkong will be as notorious for crime as it was for plague. Granted that at the December and January Criminal Sessions the calendars presented by the Attorney General contained an unusual number of indictment of the gravest character, and that the Chief Justice will have another capital charge to deal with at the February sittings statistics of crime in the Colony during the past year go far to prove that Hongkong is not nearly so bad as she is painted. The real application of any tes concerning the increase of crime comes when we reach the volume of summary offences dealt with by our magistrates. As we have already seen we are here met with a decrease which, having regard to the efficiency of our police, whose duty is to prevent rather than detect crime, is surely a satisfactory state of affairs for the Colony. The number of cases tried by the magistrates in 1904 amounted to 13,467; and that in 1903 to 13,669, shewing a decrease of 202. In 1902 the number of 14,081 in 1900, 10,158 in 1899 and 13,341 in 1898. Statistics, such as these, are

A "school" of a novel description has been. unearthed by the police, the special feature of which is the educating of the light-fingered celestials in the gentle art of leger-de-main, so that they may become expert card-sharpers and swindlers. The matter is under investigation. This is evidently another indication of the advance of Western learning.

MANY Chinese newspapers in Hongkong and Canton are publishing a translation of Consul-General Z. Volpicelli. It is a translation, adapted to the Chinese public, of the 12th chapter of the famous book "On Crimes and unishments," of Marquis Beccaria (first published in 1764), which transformed the criminal jurisprudence of Europe. The chapter in question exposes the absurdity and cruelty of judicial torture.

[From Our Correspondent.]

For a long time past a gang of thieves has cases dealt with at the Magistracy was no carried on a profitable system of robbery on less than 16,070 as against 14,531 in 1901, some of the regular river boats plying between Hongkong and this port. No one can pass down the harbour of Canton without remarking the activity of builders and the reclamations in all directions. Particularly is it noticable in the Back Reach. Since the purchase of land and the building of enormous godown and an iron wharf by Messrs. Butterfied & Swire there has been a land boom in this district. Messrs. Siemssen & Co., the Standard Oil Co., Messrs. Arnold Karberg & Co., Sir C. P. Chater, and various big Chinese shipping firms have purchased sites on the foreshore and are building granite bunds and intend erecting wharves for facilitating the reception of larger ships and the discharge of cargo. Messis. Arnold Karberg & Co. as general agents for the Shell Transport Co. have erected another large oil tank of 4,000 tons capacity, this makes the third tank on this site.. There is little doubt that this locality will, in the very near furture, be the centre of the cargo traffic, and the upper reaches will be clearer, for the enormous passenger traffic from Hongkong and Macao. When the present operations on the barriers and general removal of all artificial obstructions from the river is completed it is estimated by good authorities that boats drawing from 17 to 20 feet will be able to enter the harbour and not, as now, be compelled to lighten at Whampoa, thus making a delay, in many cases, of two or three days, It is estimated that when the operations commenced by Capt. W. Tyler, the Imperial

Customs'-Coast Inspector, are completed, this

LEAVES FOR PORT ARTHUR.

We understand on reliable authority tha H.M.'s storeship Humber, which left here about 7 p.m. on Saturday, is proceeding to Weihaiwei, Port Anhur and Dainy with medical stores, appliances, etc., for use for the wounded. Heet-Surgeon P. B. Handyside, R.N., has embarked on the Humber, which may put in at Shanghai on her way to the north. It will be remembered that in our columns a few days since we stated that H.M.S. Andromeda had been despatched with medical comforts, etc., to Port Arthur, on the fall of the stronghold, but while being thanked by the Japanese, was politely informed that her presence wa not then required.

GENERAL STOBSSEL

Shortly after noon to-day, the French mail steamer Australien entered the harbour from the north with General Stoessel and a large number of officers and men, who are proceeding to Russia, on parole, from Port Arthur. The Russian commander is also Suffice it, therefore, to say that the many awkaccompanied by his wife and six other ladies, the daughters of officers killed or wound- in the most entertaining and mirth-provoking ed during the siege. Unfortunately for those aboard the steamer and for many ashore, the ship was ordered into quarantine with the result that passengers were not allowed to land, and no one permitted to go aboard. Press representatives were among the earliest alongside, but they were refused permission to mount the gangway. Besides General and THE fourth dance of the season to be given Mdme. These passengers arrived at Nagasaki on the evening of the 12th on board of a steamer carrying 130 Russian officers and 800 men from Port Arthur. The officers now in Hongkong, not including General Stoessel, consist of Lieut.-General Nadine, who was wounded in the head and arm in May, but since then has participated in several engagements as commander of 7th Siberian Divison; a Maj.r-General, commanding the 4th Artillery Brigade, 16 field-officers, 58 company officers, 8 sergeantmajors, 1 surgeon, 3 veterinary surgeous, and 1 priest, there being also 92 men, the officers

PASSENGERS LAUNCHHELD UP

BY PIRATES. This morning the master of the passengers' launch Hoi Kong which plies between Sha Miand Hongkong, reported to the police that on Saturday, while on his usual trip, and when between Ping On and Tai Chan, some of the passengers suddenly seized revolvers, and with these terrorizing the crew and passengers relieved them of all their valuables, clothing and other property getting clear away with loot to the estimated value of $10,000. It appears that these men got on board as ordinary passengers taking with them a big jar, which, they said, contained merchandise. This was covered and the contents could not be seen. As soon as the launch got into the open, after leaving Ping On, these pirates opened their jar of "merchandize," and, producing revolvers therefrom, went through the whole boat, annexing all that was worth their taking, even to the arms carried by the crew for their own protection. They then got into a boat which came alongside, and got clear away, leaving nothing behind as any clue but the empty jar. There were in all twenty men in this band. No lives were lost in the melée, and no one was seriously hart.

On the arrival of the s.s. " JANE " AT THE THEATRE ROYAL.

Whilst the members of the above Club can always be relied upon to give an artistic and painstaking representation of any piece they may elect to put on, it is not too much to say that in "Jane" they have excelled themselves. A brighter and merrier farcical comedy, i would be indeed difficult to select, and i proved just the thing to show the club in broad comedy at their very best. Presenting no stage or scenic difficulties, the cutious action al taking place in Shackleton's rooms, Messrs. Harry Nicholls' and W. Lestocg's joint effort, went from start to finish on Saturday night without a single hitch, and created peals of laughter from the large and distinguished audience present. A full description of the piece has already appeared in these columns. ward and ludicrous situations were worked out style, the whole performance bearing evidence of the most complete and careful rehearsal and preparation. H. Hall-Wright undertook the rôle of the sprightly and up-to-date Jane, and it would have been impossible to have entrusted the part to a more capable and conscientions actress. The part itself is unquestionably a difficult one, even in the hands of a practised professional, requiring matters to present, as it should be presented: but in the hands of Mrs. Hall-Wright, the very utmost was made of it, and she brought out unquestioned histrionic abilities, a personality of great charm, and under all or any circumstances a powerful acquisition to the ranks of general management of the increasing work. any Company. THE PHILIPPINES ALIENS

LAW AFFAIR.

We reported in these columns on Friday last, the hard case of the two men, Rae and and Woodington, who, after being brought out from home under contract, as foremen platelayers for service with the Manila-Dagupan Railway, were informed, on landing in Manila, by the manager, as they allege, that if they worked for the company they would be breaking the law. These men have now been declared vagrants, and sent to the House of Detention. The Government is endeavouring to obtain their passages home,

ALICE MEMORIAL NETHER-SOLE AND ALICE MEMORIAL MATERNITY HOSPITALS.

From the 1924 report of the above institutions we learn that throughout the year the numbers of cases treated has been well maintained, the outpatient department showing an increase of 1,359 over returns for 1903. It is gratifying that through the generous help of friends at home and in the Colony the Maternity Hospital has been erected, furnished and no debt remains on the building. In 1887 the Alice Memorial Hospital was opened, in .1893 the Netersole Hospital, in 1904 the Alice Memorial Mathernity Hospital, and in 1905 the Ho Mui Kwai Hospital, which has already been begun, will be completed. The site of llo Mui Kwai Hospital, lying immediately to a more than superficial knowledge of stage the West of the Nethersole and Maternity Hospital, has been kindly given by the Hongkong Government, and the cost of erecting the building has been undertaken by a Chinese the many brilliant points with unfailing readi- lady, belonging to a well-known Hongkong ness.
